
EMANUEL FRIEND, SURGEON, GIVEN A DIVORCE AT 65

Judge Rudolph F. Desort yesterday granted by Dr. Emanuel Friend, prominent surgeon, a divorce from Mrs. Magdalen Friend. Dr. Friend, who is 65 years old, lives at the Hotel Windermere West, and Mrs. Friend at the Georgian hotel in Evanston.

They were married in 1917 and she filed a bill for separate maintenance several months ago in the Superior court, charging her husband with cruelty. Although he is well to do, she charged, they lived in a single hotel room and she was forced to cook their meals on an electric plate in the bathroom.

Dr. Friend filed a bill for divorce, charging that Mrs. Friend deserted him by going to California in October, 1932, against his wishes, and it was on this bill that he got the divorce yesterday. Mrs. Friend received a settlement of $25,000, an automobile and $5,100 in fees for her attorney, Samuel A. Ettelson.
