

OPINIONS OF

THE PRESS.

The Detroit Free Press,
Saturday, June 4th, 1887.

A FAMILY TREE.

Prof. Hambujer, of this city, has just published a volume entitled "The Family Tree" which is intended when properly filled out to show a complete family record, exhibiting the relationship between families and tracing the line of descent through the several generations. The plan upon which the pages have been prepared and lettered seems to be an admirable one and well calculated for the purpose to which the book is designed. Testimonials of approval from a number of citizens accompany the work.

Detroit Evening Journal,

Saturday, June 4th, 1887.

Prof. Hambujer has just published a valuable memorandum book, entitled "The Family Tree," a record of ancestors, and showing the relationship between families, names, births, marriages, deaths, occupation, religion, emigration, history of their real estate and property, with records of notes, bonds, wills, and other personal and domestic matters.

The Detroit Tribune,

Saturday, June 4th, 1887.

Prof. E. Hambujer, of Detroit, has inven-

The Freeman,
Detroit, Saturday June 11th, 1887.

Personal. Prof. E. Hambujer has just issued a book entitled "The Family Tree," which is a very useful work and should meet with great favor. It is something that every family should have. It is artistically gotten up and bound in the strongest of binding, and will last through generations.

Detroit World,

Sunday Morning, June 12th, 1887.

THE FAMILY TREE.

"The Family Tree," a useful publication for keeping family records, has been issued in Detroit. It is published by Prof. E. Hambujer, who is entitled to credit for the completeness with which he has given it. Every family should have one.

The Michigan Farmer.

Detroit, Monday June 13th, 1887.

Received. We have received a copy of "The Family Tree," a family record of ancestors, prepared and published by Prof. E. Hambujer, of this city, which, as its title indicates, is designed to hold, in convenient form, the whole family relationship and his-

Die Abend-Post.

Detroit, Samstag, den 4. Juni 1887.

Ein Stammbaum-Buch.

Prof. E. Hambujer hat seinen unzähligen Erfindungen soeben wieder eine neue hinzugefügt. Diesmal ist es eine Art Stammbaum-Buch, das er ausgedüffelt hat und das zur Eintragung von Familienereignissen, Heirathen, Geburten, Sterbefällen, Heimathsorten der verschiedenen Familienmitglieder, Geschäfts-transactionen, Werthpapieren im Besitz der Familie, Besitzurkunden u. s. w. u. s. w. dienen soll. Das Buch ist rubrizirt und jede Seite zeigt am oberen Rande, in deutlichem Druck den Zweck, für den sie bestimmt ist.

Subrubriken und eine ausführliche, sechs Seiten umfassende Einleitung, geben genügende Anleitung zu den Eintragungen, so daß Jeder, welcher der englischen Sprache einigermaßen mächtig ist, sich in dem Buch zurecht finden und die Einzeichnungen am rechten Platz machen kann.

Herr Hambujer ist auf die Idee, ein solches Schema zu einem vollständigen Familienregister anzulegen, durch seine bekannte Erbschaftsgeschichte gekommen, die sich in die Länge zieht, weil er noch immer nicht im Stande, die Zugehörigkeit einzelner Glieder seiner Familie nach-published a clever book called "The Family Tree" which will enable purchasers to keep a complete family record of ancestors, showing the relationship existing between families, and tracing the line of descent through the different generations.

Detroit Sunday News,

Sunday, June 5th, 1887.

Prof. E. Hambujer, of Detroit, has prepared and published a book entitled "The Family Tree," to serve as a record of family connections and relationships, with blank spaces for the registering of nearly every fact worth knowing about one's self or his kindred.

Detroit Commercial Advertiser,

Detroit, Friday June 10th, 1887.

A very useful record book has just been published by Prof. E. Hambujer, of this city. It is appropriately named "The Family Tree." In it are pages whereon to record the family pedigree and continue the same indefinitely, besides convenient pages for noting all matters relating to property, wills, etc. In fact, if kept with the care such an important record demands, it will prove not only interesting to the present, but invaluable to future generations. The Professor deserves credit for the skill shown in arranging the record book, which is his own idea and invention.

tory. It is a good-sized register, conveniently and appropriately arranged for the purpose indicated, substantially bound and of excellent quality of paper, so that it may be easily preserved. It is designed also as a record of the property investments, which are to be entered under appropriate heads. In view of the many instances where persons might have proved their claims to inheritance in great properties had they but possessed proofs of kinship, and because also of the litigations often arising through the loss or wanton destruction of important documents, the value of such a family record is obvious. In these days of pedigrees and herd-books it would seem as if a man ought to realize that it is as important to keep an account of his own family relationship as of the ancestry of his stock.

Wayne County Courier,

Detroit, June 11th, 1887.

Persons who have a veneration for their ancestry, and who wish to keep a clear and complete family record, should possess themselves at once of "The Family Tree," a remarkable complete work of its kind, issued by Prof. E. Hambujer, of Detroit. It is a very handy book to have in any family and is designed for the benefit of all, as the professor truly says.

zulegen. Dies würde leicht sein, behauptet er, wenn seine Eltern oder Großeltern ein Familienregister geführt hätten. Das Buch ist im Selbstverlag Hambujer's erschienen, ist aber auch in H. Reif's Buchhandlung, No. 94 Gratiot Avenue, zu haben, wo die Leser Einsicht von demselben nehmen können.

Michigan Volksblatt,

Detroit, Samstag den 4. Juni 1887.

Der Familien-Stammbaum. Hr. Hambujer der bekannte hiesige Bürger, hat ein für jedes ökonomische Familienhaupt unentbehrliches Buch unter dem Titel „Der Familien-Stammbaum“ veröffentlicht. Wenn die Tabellen dieses Buches richtig und je nach Möglichkeit ausgefüllt werden, so ist dadurch eine der besten Uebersichten des Stammbaumes einer Familie gegeben. Dieses Buch findet allgemein den besten Anklang und wird noch späteren Generationen vielleicht angenehme Aufschlüsse über die Geschichte ihrer Ahnen geben.

Sonntag Herald.

Detroit, Mich., Sonntag den 12. Juni 1887.

Herr E. Hambujer hat ein Familienstammbuch erfunden, welches für manchen gewiß Interesse haben wird. Dasselbe ist in der Reif'schen Buchhandlung zu haben.

TESTIMONIALS.

PROF. E. HAMBUIER, Detroit.

DETROIT, April 12, 1887.

Dear Sir:—I have looked through your plan for having and preserving family records and take pleasure in expressing my approval of it. Such a book should be kept by every family. In many cases it would be immensely valuable.

Yours truly,

F. G. RUSSELL.

I fully concur in the above:

D. L. Holbrook,
Dickinson, Thurber & Hosmer.
Russell & Campbell,
M. H. Chamberlain, Mayor.

The idea is a good one:

J. J. Speed,
Circuit Judge
Wm. Jennison,
Circuit Judge.

Wm. S. Sheeran,
City Attorney.
Charles B. Lothrop,

DETROIT, April 12, 1887.

PROF. E. HAMBUIER, City.

My Dear Sir:—I have examined with pleasure your "Family Tree, or Record of Ancestors." Such a work as you have designed will certainly commend itself to the public as meritorious and good. Respectfully,

William Look.

I concur in the general approval of the work.

John Miner, Police Justice.

The Record, or "Family Tree" can be had at all Booksellers and of Agents at $1.00.